

THE HUADING AWARDS TO RETURN TO HOLLYWOOD WITH 24TH AWARDS CEREMONY SET FOR JUN 19, 2018 AT THE WILTERN

The Fan-Voted International Awards Show Honors Celebrities in the Areas of Film, Television, Music, and More

(Los Angeles, CA, April 23, 2018) – Global Talents Media Group (GTMG) announced today that the 24th Huading Awards will see the awards show's return to Hollywood, with the ceremony set to take place on June 19, 2018 at The Wiltern in Los Angeles. This marks the Huading Awards' third show in Los Angeles, having previously held L.A. ceremonies in both 2014 and 2016. The ceremony will honor celebrities in the areas of film, television, music, and more. Categories include Best Actor/Actress in Film, Best Actor/Actress in a TV Series, Best Male/Female Singer, and Best Director, with separate awards for Chinese and global films.

"We are excited to be back in Hollywood, the global capital of entertainment, to host our 24th Huading Awards show," said awards founder Wang Haige. "Since the beginning, our goal has been to bridge the gap between the Chinese and American entertainment industries. Returning to Hollywood for this show is an important step towards that goal, as the Huading Awards continues to expand its global presence."

The Huading Awards was founded in 2007 by GTMG, a renowned Chinese entertainment company. The awards show is often referred to as the People's Choice Awards of China among global audiences, being a competition based on public opinion surveys. Nominees are selected by an entertainment committee and the winners are chosen by popular vote in China, with an estimated 80 million fans voting through the award show's website and other Chinese internet portals. The 24th awards ceremony in Los Angeles follows the recent 23rd Huading Awards, which took place in Macau, China on April 8, 2018. The Huading Awards presents multiple awards shows throughout the year honoring different mediums including film, television, music, lifestyle, and more. Previous Huading Awards attendees include Halle Barry, Hilary Swank, Jackie Chan, Jeremy Irons, Mel Gibson, Natalie Portman, Nicolas Cage, Nicole Kidman, Orlando Bloom and Quentin Tarantino.

GTMG continues to grow the Huading Awards' global presence, with the mission of expanding its footprint in order to develop overall awareness of China's film and entertainment industry within the international community. GTMG has fully-operational offices in Macau, Shen Zhen, and most recently Los Angeles. The new fully-operational U.S. Headquarters office in L.A. was established to further integrate into the entertainment market and gain traction as a key player within the awards show space.

For additional information on the 24th Huading Awards, please visit www.huadingaward.com.

ABOUT THE HUADING AWARDS:

The Huading Awards and corporate parent Global Talents Media Group (GTMG) seek to bridge the gap between the Chinese and American entertainment industries, bringing together celebrities and industry leaders from both countries in a celebration of excellence and cross-cultural understanding. The ceremony honors multiple forms of entertainment, including films, TV, music, and celebrities' public images. The Huading Awards consists of multiple awards shows throughout the year honoring different mediums including film, television, music, lifestyle, and more. Nominees are selected by an entertainment committee and the winners are chosen by popular vote in China, with an estimated 80 million fans voting through polls and surveys. The awards typically reach an audience of up to 600 million viewers through broadcasts on more than 60 TV channels in China alone, with an additional 400 million viewers online.

MEDIA CONTACT:

42West / Julia Rossen

Julia.Rossen@42West.net

424.901.8726